

Please hold public hearings on this issue. It is important that every voice is heard, and equal time given to both sides. It is the only fair and just way to get a clear representation of what the people want.

And that is ultimately who every federal employee works for, isn't it?

Thanks,

TJ Poor